Crazy Laws Still on Virginia Books

Today when law makers need a bill to pass they add items to it that are important to the folks who oppose the bills. They call it Pork Fat or Pork Barrel. This practice has been around since the beginning of our country. Hence the laws that are still on the books which must have been added in with other laws in order to pass. I cannot see where some of these laws would have passed as a stand-alone law. I am sure some of them will put a smile on your face!

- ◆ Citizens must honk their horn while passing other cars.
- ◆ It is illegal to tickle women.
- ◆ Not only is it illegal to have sex with the lights on, one may not have sex in any position other than missionary.
- ◆ There is a state law prohibiting “corrupt practices of bribery by any person other than candidates.
- ◆ You may not engage in business on Sundays, with the exception of almost every industry.
- ◆ If one is not married, it is illegal for him to have sexual relations.
- ◆ You may not have oral or anal sex.
- ◆ Police radar detectors are illegal.
- ◆ No animal may be hunted for on Sunday with the exception of raccoons, which may be hunted until 2:00 AM.

CULPEPPER:

- ◆ No one may wash a mule on the sidewalk.

FREDRICK:

- ◆ Any person who owns a pool risks a $2500 fine for not closing the gate to the pool when they get done swimming in it.
- ◆ Any person who owns a pool risks a $2500 fine for not closing the gate to the pool when they get done swimming in it.

NORFOLK:

- ◆ Spitting on a sea gull is not tolerated
- ◆ A man may face 60 days in jail for patting a woman’s derriere.
- ◆ Women must wear a corset after sundown and be in the company of male chaperone.

- ◆ It is also unlawful to drive by the same place within 30 minutes on Atlantic Avenue.

WAYNESBORO:

- ◆ It is illegal for a woman to drive a car up Main Street unless her husband is walking in front of the car waving a red flag.

I do not think anyone recently has tried to enforce these laws. They do make for a good laugh. Virginia is a wonderful state to live in as there is so much history and so many things to do. You never really need to leave the state to go on vacation if you do not want to and there is always something interesting right around the corner!!
